"One child, one teacher, one book and one pen can change the world." –Malala Yousafzai, activist for female education and the youngest Nobel Prize laureate

Without a doubt, each year in my first grade classroom there was one child who stood out. Sometimes for being an eager learner or avid reader, sometimes for making hilarious comments, sometimes for just being so dang sweet. But more likely the one child I think back on from a particular year was the one who translated for her parents when they came into the classroom, the child whose explosive temper taught the rest of the class what patience and acceptance truly means, the child who could not speak, but encouraged love and friendship without words. One child. Changing the world in that classroom.

The power of one takes on new meaning in October for AAUW-Appleton. It means picking up one book. Looking at the book, deciding if its proper box is "old" or "self-help" or "hard cover fiction A-M". Putting one book in a box. Then another. And another. Putting one book on a table at the mall. Another book. One by one by one we are making a difference.

The book sale is an amazing example of who we are as an organization. One by one, members do their part...sorting, carting, labeling, hoisting, sweating, swearing (just in our heads, of course), organizing, worrying (especially if you are on the book sale committee). One by one our members meet new friends and work like crazy. One by one we change the world for at least 6 women who will get scholarships... because one woman began by picking up one book.

So, friends...if you have not joined yet...plan to work on the book sale! There is a lot to do...but trust me...it might be the one thing you remember about the whole year.

See you there!
Becky O'Connor, President

AAUW : National Focus (from Mission & Action e-news)

Our Two Cents on the New Pay Gap Data

Last week the U.S. Census Bureau released new data that tell an old story: Women still make 82 cents on the dollar compared to men, which is not statistically different from last year's data after accounting for a recent change in methodology. "Based on historic rates, the gap won't close for 75 years — until 2093. And that's just too long," says AAUW CEO Kim Church-es. "It's time we all stand up and demand basic fairness."

You Did It! AAUW Delivers on Negotiation-Training Goal

With a lot of help from our members, AAUW hit a major milestone in our partnership with the Coca-Cola Foundation to teach women everywhere to negotiate effectively. As of August 23, we've trained 102,656 women to ask for the salary they deserve, either through Work Smart Online or in-person workshops.

AAUW : State Focus

Although national met its 100,000 person goal, we still have far to go. One of AAUW WI's goals is to have members take and share Work Smart Online here in Wisconsin. Please continue to share Work Smart Online with your networks, including alumni groups and other online communities, and help us promote women's economic security.

AAUW : Local Focus—What YOU Can Do

- ◆ Visit: salary.aauw.org—take the Work Smart Online course, share the information with others who can benefit from learning salary negotiation skills.
- ◆ Take action today by signing up for the Two-Minute Activist

<https://www.aauw.org/what-we-do/public-policy/two-minute-activist/>

- ◆ Then make your voice heard on the following issue:

Two-Minute Activist: Fight Workplace Harassment

Workplace harassment hurts everyone, but women, people of color, and those working in low-paid jobs are among the most vulnerable. The Bringing an End to Harassment by Enhancing Accountability and Rejecting Discrimination (Be HEARD) in the Workplace Act (H.R. 2148/ S. 1082) would build on existing civil rights laws to provide new protections against harassment, while also safeguarding existing discrimination law. Act now to support this important legislation by going to https://salsa4.salsalabs.com/o/50796/p/dia/action4/common/public/?action\_KEY=26192 to contact your representatives.

If you haven't picked up the 2019-2020 directory yet, they will be available at the October 10 Branch Meeting & Book Sale Work Night. The directories will stay at our Northland Mall location through the weeks of set-up and the book sale. Please make plans to get your directory so that we don't have to incur the cost of mailing to you.

Important Reminder!

AAUW is a nonpartisan organization that promotes equity for women and girls. It is always good to remind ourselves of this! At any AAUW sponsored events, from book sale work to branch meetings and interest groups, we do not name or endorse particular politicians or candidates. From our national website: "We have a long herstory of creating social change through public policy efforts. Our work has always been political but has never been partisan." The advocacy we do as an organization is based on issues relating to our mission, and these are outlined in our Public Policy Priorities.

IMPORTANT BOOK SALE SORTING/MOVING INFO

Book sale is almost here, the final push is on! Here are a couple important things for everyone to know about the move from Atlas to the Northland Mall:

1. We are sorting on Tuesdays, 9/24 and 10/1, and Friday, 10/4, 9 am to noon. After that, please don't bring or leave any more books at the mill. Hold on to them and bring them to the Northland Mall on or after Thursday, 10/10, our work night. Same for anyone who wants to drop their books off, ask them to bring them to the Northland Mall after the 10th.
2. On Monday, 10/7, starting at 9 am, we will be breaking down and packing up all the plastic shelving, boards, and all other "stuff" at Atlas for moving to Northland. We will need help with this.
3. Tables will be delivered at Northland at noon on Monday, the 7th. We will need help setting up the tables.
4. On Tuesday, the 8th, starting at 9 am, we will start loading about 1300+ boxes of sorted books at Atlas for transport to Northland. We really will need help with this. Also the help of husbands, friends, significant others, strong children/grandchildren, etc. to give us a hand.
5. If you can help on either of these days, please email Chris Taylor, taylor.christine50@gmail.com, and let her know when and where you can help.
6. We can use extra handcarts and dollies if you have them, please bring them along.
7. If you have a pick up truck and can have it available on Monday morning for hauling, that would be helpful.
8. Finally, on Sunday, the 27th, when the sale ends at noon, we will need help packing up leftover books and transporting them to Goodwill.

Thank you everyone for all of your help. If you have questions, please contact one of the book sale chairs.

Here's to a successful sale!!

AAUW WI PUBLIC POLICY DAY

TEAM AAUW FOR GOTV

Saturday, November 2, 2019
9:00-3:00 (light breakfast 8:30)
Madison Technical College Truax Campus Health and Information Technology Building
1705 Hoffman St., Madison, WI 53704 (608) 246-6065

At some time, every member has experienced occasions where political discussions occur. While this can be uncomfortable situation as AAUW members we strive to continue to encourage citizens to exercise their right to vote as an informed voter. So, there will be appropriate times when we want to talk about issues with people even if they don't see how their voting makes a difference or they have difficulty listening to information you want share on issues.

2020 is viewed as an important election year. This is an opportunity for our members to be active in the election process and advocate for AAUW issue. Our overall theme for the day is about getting out the vote as informed members skilled in advocacy strategies. The AAUW WI Public Policy Day is intended to be informative as well as an opportunity to hone your advocacy skills. Don't miss this opportunity to participate.

During the morning sessions, the committee has invited several speakers from other organizations who share similar positions as AAUW. Matt Rothschild from Democracy Campaign will share information on why voting matters. Wisconsin Alliance of Women's Health and Wisconsin Public Education Network speakers will highlight issues that impact women and girls with a focus on Wisconsin legislation. The afternoon allows time to hone your skills on having difficult conversations on issues and strategies for advocacy. The committee will have a variety of materials for members at the meeting. Materials will be available on the website.

Further information will be posted on <https://aauw-wi.aauw.net/> website under Public Policy tab. If you are unable to travel to Madison, you can still participate by using the Go to Meeting.

Please consider coming as a team or pairing up with others either in your branch or district.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:30 p.m. Members were invited to browse the tables.

Member Outreach

Member Outreach is a way for our AAUW community to stay connected and reach out to members during significant times in their lives.

Laurie Leonard, AAUW member creates beautiful cards for occasions such as:

- ◆ Thinking of you
- ◆ Congratulations
- ◆ Get Well
- ◆ Illness

If you know a member who we should reach out to in this way, please contact JaneAnne McCabe jamforever02@yahoo.com
