"My greatest hope is that we don't reach for normal; that we reach for better." — Michele Norris, American journalist, co-host of NPR's All Things Considered

I never was a cheerleader in high school. I'm not sure if it was my choice, my inner voice telling me I did not have that type of talent, or my dad (and principal) guiding me subtly toward forensics, debate and music. I did, however, make sure I positioned myself in the pep band close enough to sit by my future husband (yes, it's true) and encourage the Galloping Ghosts. Who, of course, were all boys' teams at the time. But I was not a cheerleader.

Fast forward a ton of years...and I am about to become a cheerleader.

An AAUW-Appleton Branch cheerleader.

Michele Norris, a recent guest on Michelle Obama's podcast, said "The great pause needs to become the great recalibration." Well AAUW-Appleton has recalibrated. A once in a lifetime pandemic can't stop a group of strong women. And I am cheering you on to take part in our branch in some way. In any way.

Join us at our first branch meeting on September 17. Can't Zoom? No worries.

Join me in the practice session the day before! And mark your calendars for every monthly meeting!

Read the letter in the Badger Briefs from our State President, Joan Schneider, and know that it is a call to action! We can do this!

Book Sale postponed? No problem. We are still collecting and sorting. And planning for when it does happen. Join others at book sorting...safely masked and physically distanced.

Read Just Mercy and know that as our first "AAUW Reads" book we are opening our eyes to those defending the poor, the wrongly condemned and those trapped in the furthest reaches of our justice system.

Join a book group or art class to chat, think, create, pause for breath during this pandemic.

Support our Public Policy actions...our voices together can make a difference! Explore the topic of race in our Social Issues interest group.

Vote and encourage everyone you know to vote!

Above all keep connected, keep in touch with AAUW friends and know that our mission of advocating for women and girls is more important than ever.

Our AAUW branch is not reaching for normal. We are reaching for better. Let's cheer each other on as we start this new year of learning and advocacy!

October Branch Meeting

Thursday, October 15th, 2020 6:30 PM

We will have a speaker from EXPO (Ex-Incarcerated People Organizing) on the Incarceration of Women

AAUW is a nonpartisan organization that promotes equity for women and girls. It is always good to remind ourselves of this. At any AAUW sponsored events, from book sale work to branch meetings and interest groups, we do not name or endorse particular politicians or candidates. From our national website: "We have a long herstory of creating social change through public policy efforts. Our work has always been political but has never been partisan." The advocacy we do as an organization is based on issues relating to our mission, and these are outlined in our Public Policy Priorities.

MEMBERSHIP NEWS

AAUW welcomes new 2020 - 2021 member Anne Planner, who moved here in April from Florida. ... and with our beautiful Wisconsin summer weather, I bet she doesn't miss it a bit!!!

It's disappointing though, for all of us that we meet virtually, but "this too shall pass"! In the meantime, Anne has discovered that she has AAUW neighbors, and they have already hooked up! Yay, Mary Zanto! By way of further introduction, Anne is originally from Appleton. She is a cousin of Christine Taylor, a Xavier grad, and a retired nurse. Anne is an avid volunteer in multiple areas, loves to read, and puts on lots of miles walking. We hope to see you at our kickoff meeting September 17th, Anne! Welcome to the Appleton branch of AAUW!

Welcome to Appleton AAUW, Susan Ahrens!

Susan is originally from Oak Park, Illinois, has earned her Masters in Education from Indiana University, and has taught in both Indiana and Florida. Happily retired now, Susan loves living back in Appleton where she can be near her three children and seven grandchildren. Susan still volunteers in education at AASD, and more. She enjoys reading, knitting, jigsaw puzzles, and of course, her grandchildren!! We look forward to getting to know you, Susan!! In person!!! Welcome!

Appleton AAUW welcomes Barbara Waedekin, who joined us in December of 2019. We would like to remind her that we are so happy to have her in our branch! Barbara attended Marquette University and has an M.D. in psychiatry. Barbara is Retired; however she continues to volunteer at multiple clinics. She enjoys knitting, crocheting, sewing (she knows Connie Polley), reading, gardening, baking, and lots of other crafts. Welcome to our Appleton Branch of AAUW, Barbara, and we look forward to seeing you on September 17th at our Zoom kick-off meeting!

DIRECTORY DELIVERY:

Since we will be meeting virtually, we had to devise another method for delivering the directories. Members of the AAUW Appleton board will be making doorstep drop-offs of directories sometime after Labor Day and before our branch meeting on 9/17.

BOOK SALE UPDATE:

In our July 31 announcement we shared that our 2020 Book Sale has been postponed. We are still collecting and sorting books. Following is the information for both activities:

Collecting books:

If you have books you would like to deliver to our storage area in Kaukauna, you may bring them during any of our Tuesday morning sorting times. If you would like to deliver books at another time, please contact Betsy Mintern (832-9218), Christine Taylor (636-8153), or Shirley Schloemer (842-8888). They each have a key and can arrange a time to meet you there.

Book Sorting:

We will have book sorting every Tuesday morning from 9:00 am until noon starting on September 8. This should be a safe small group activity in a large space. If you feel comfortable attending and plan to go, please wear your mask. When you arrive at the Kaukauna library, park in the lower lot and enter through the lower entrance to the library. There are orange cones in front of the door and it is open. Our room Is straight ahead and then down a short hallway to the left.

On September 8, you are invited to stay afterward for a socially distanced lunch in the parking lot. Bring a chair and your lunch. We will be looking at other options for boxed lunches for future sorting days.

AAUW-Appleton Board Update!

We welcome Connie Wunderlich to the board who has taken the position of secretary. Our best wishes for improved health go to Kathleen McDonald who had to step down at this time. Although we will miss Kathleen on the board, we will eagerly welcome her back in the future!

Have you checked out this webpage recently? AAUW is a proud part of this big effort to celebrate the centennial of the 19th Amendment! Be sure to check out the resources for educators and parents! AAUW members Jacqui Klimaszewski, LouAnn Graf and Becky O'Connor worked to put together kits for students in all Appleton Area School District elementary and public charter schools. All schools/parents/teachers will find the online resources helpful as well. Special thanks to AAUW member Chris Scott who designed coloring pages that honor the lives of Sojourner Truth, Ida B. Wells, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, and Susan B. Anthony.

Scholarship Update!

In May we introduced you to our 12 university scholarship recipients. We also award 2 scholarships to women who are in their second year of an associate degree program at Fox Valley Technical College. These recipients are chosen by the FVTC scholarship selection Committee. We recently received their names.

Congratulations to Amy Vander Hyden of Combined Locks and Samantha Schmidt of Neenah. Amy will graduate next May with an associate degree in accounting and plans to seek full time employment in the accounting field. She is a non-traditional student with experience but found it difficult to advance in her field without a degree. Samantha will graduate next May with a degree in interior design. After graduation she plans to start her own design business. She has always loved interior design and has a passion for art and creating things.
