The Apple Branch

American Association of University Women Appleton, Wisconsin
Serving the Greater Fox Cities Area

Volume 38 Number 6 February 2024

"We are tenacious and trailblazing--- advocating for women and girls since 1881 and into the future."

I caught this quote on the 'About AAUW' page of AAUW.org and was inspired to click on the link: 'Faces of AAUW.' Wow! What fun it was to scroll through the lengthy collection of AAUW Trailblazers there; Women who are/were members and award winners who pioneered advances for gender equity.

I was quickly reminded of two trailblazers mentioned by Chris Ebert's 'American Indian Nation' presentation at our Branch meeting this month. She highlighted Deb Haaland, a Pueblo of Laguna Tribe member, who is presently the 1st Native American Head of the U.S. Dept. of the Interior.

Chris also praised Ada Deer, a member of the Menominee Tribe in Wisconsin. She was an American scholar and former U.S. Assistant Secretary of the Interior for Indian Affairs. We even learned that our own Mary Grace knew Ada personally in their mutual work with Girl Scouts!!

I highly recommend you learn more about the tenacious trailblazers featured on that AAUW link, especially with these wintry, stay-at-home days we're facing. Just a sampling of the ladies highlighted there:

Rep. Jeannette Rankin – 1st woman elected to Congress (1917)

Rep. Shirley Chisholm – 1st Black woman elected to Congress (1969)

Rep. Edith Green – proposed Equal Pay Act in 1955

Wilma Mankiller – From Tahlequah, Oklahoma, she was the first female Chief of the Cherokee Nation, and an adviser to the U.S. Sec. on Tribal Affairs. She received the Presidential Medal of Freedom.

Patricia Roberts Harris – Was the first female U.S. Cabinet Secretary.

Eleanor Roosevelt – started World Center for Women's Archives with AAUW member Mary Beard to 'write women back into history.'

Mary Child Husted – an AAUW member, she was the brain and voice behind Betty Crocker.

Marie Curie – In 1920 AAUW members raised $100,000 to buy a gram of radium for her research.

Dorothy Boulding Farabee – A child of slaves in Virginia, was a board member of the AAUW Washington (DC) Branch; worked tirelessly to ensure access to health care for underserved communities. I have a "sort of" connection to trailblazer Wilma Mankiller....I actually lived in Tahlequah, OK 1973-75!

Happy Researching!

Key Dates for 2024 Vote

- o January 26 | Comment period ends at 5:00 pm ET
- o April 3 | Voting opens (online voting is encouraged)
- o May 15 | Online voting ends at 12:00 pm ET and results announced online

We encourage your participation and look forward to hearing your thoughts.

Best regards,

Shannon Wolfe

Managing Director and Chief of Staff

AAUW's annual art contest is officially under way, and we invite members to submit a high-res image of their original painting, photography, sculpture, collage or other artwork. We will be accepting submissions through January 31, 2024. Your work could be among the winning entries!

Starting in February, AAUW members will select their favorite entries via ranked-choice voting. The winners will be featured on a collection of notecards sent to all members this spring. The back of each card will include the winning artist's biography, a fact about AAUW and a highlight of the artist's local branch affiliation when applicable.

Please spread the word to your state and branch! We know from past years' entries that there is a lot of talent out there!

For more information on submitting artwork, or to peruse last year's art gallery, please visit the AAUW Art Contest page.

Membership News

Membership Status: The question was asked at the January Branch Meeting as to how many members the Appleton Branch currently has. There are 152 members as of January 14, 2024. Of those 152 members, 16 became new members in 2023! Let's see how many more members we can recruit for 2024! If you know of anyone who is interested in joining, please send me their names and contact info and I will get in touch with them. Let's continue to grow our phenomenal branch!

Renewal Reminder: It is time to renew for those members who joined AAUW in February 2023. You can renew online at AAUW's Community Hub. Just click log in and go to your personal profile with your credit card. Renewal amount is $100: National $72, State (WI) $13 and Branch (Appleton) $15. If you prefer, you can send a check made out to AAUW-Appleton to Jackie Booher. Jackie's information is in the directory. If you are unsure of your renewal date, contact Linda Buck at buck@yahoo.com

Stay warm and think Spring!

Update on WI Gerrymandering Supreme Court Case

The Wisconsin Supreme Court ruled 4-3 in favor of Democrats who argued that the legislative maps are unconstitutional because districts drawn aren't contiguous. New maps are likely to be unveiled in about two months. The court appointed two consultants who already had a hand in reshaping districts in other states. Jonathan Cervas, of Carnegie Mellon University in Pittsburgh, redrew New York's congressional and state Senate maps after a court struck down ones adopted by the Democratic-led Legislature. Bernard Grofman, of the University of California, Irvine, helped redraw Virginia's federal and state legislative districts after a bipartisan commission deadlocked. The maps from parties to the lawsuit are due by Jan. 12, with supporting arguments due 10 days later. Reports from the consultants are due by Feb. 1, with responses a week later. This means the court will release new maps likely sometime in late February or early March unless the Legislature acts first. The state elections commission has said maps must be in place by March 15 if the new districts are to be in play for the 2024 election.

Tech Savvy Update

Registration is now open! We are very excited about the keynote speakers. The morning keynote speaker is Alexis Staniec—you may recognize her as the meteorologist for Storm Center 5. She will share her story of combining her love for science and media in her profession.

The 2:30 keynote is Hillary Isebrands. She is Sharon O’Leary’s daughter and the Senior Roadway Safety and Design Engineer/Team Leader for the Federal Highway Administration—quite an important position!! She will also be doing a morning hands-on presentation and presenting as part of the panel of women working in STEM careers in Girl Savvy. We are lucky that she was able to fit us into her schedule.

Read about the rest of the program presentations on our updated website!

Special thank you to all those who helped sort and distribute posters and flyers to the school. Please promote registering for Tech Savvy with any girls in grades 6-9 that you may know—as well as schools—teachers, counselors, library/media, etc. There are some extra posters/flyers—just contact me at jiklim@new.rr.com and I will get them to you to distribute. We can always get you some more of the small cards as well to pass out.

TECH SAVVY NEEDS YOU !!!

Many AAUW volunteers are needed to assist at Tech Savvy on March 9th at the University of Wisconsin Oshkosh campus in Menasha. The good news is that you don’t even need to be Tech Savvy to volunteer! We need branch members to help with registration/check-in, door greeting, meal distribution, room monitors, etc. You can volunteer for the whole day or just the morning or afternoon.

A volunteer application is included in this newsletter. To volunteer, print the application, complete it and mail it to Judy Phillips, 2609 S. East St, Appleton, WI 54915. The application can also be found here: <https://appleton-wi.aauw.net/files/2023/12/Tech-Savvy-Volunteer-Form-2024.pdf>

Completed volunteer forms MUST BE TURNED IN BY MARCH 1!

If you have any questions , please contact Judy Phillips or Mary Grace. Further details will be sent to those who volunteer.

Thanks for volunteering!
Mary & Judy

Illuminating Women is a photographic and written-word exhibit that seeks to bring the stories of 30 incredible women from the Appleton area into focus. The women are diverse in backgrounds, ages, and work, yet they all are a gift to their community. Juliane Troicki and Laura Schneider collaborated to create the exhibit, and are on a quest to take this concept to celebrate women in communities everywhere. Laura Schneider is the photographer, Juliane Troicki the storyteller.

The exhibit opens January 12, but on Friday, March 8, there will be a special program in honor of International Women's Day. In addition to free admittance all day, there will be a panel discussion by several of the women who are featured in the exhibit. We are invited to learn and be inspired by their lives of achievement. The panel discussion will be held from 5:00-7:00 that evening. Make plans to attend with friends or family! More info in March newsletter.
